Historic South.

General Sam Dale.

On October 13, 1968, a long-sought memorial was dedicated to one of the South's great frontier heroes, General Sam Dale, at Daleville , Mississippi.

Sam Dale (1772- 1841) was a Federal Scout, Trail Blazer, Indian Fighter, Legislator and Wagon Train Leader.

His exploits included an eight - day, 700-miles horseback ride through hostile territory to carry War Department dispatches to Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans, and a canoe fight on an Alabama river in which he killed nine Indians, One by one.

He was the only white man to witness one of Chief Tecumseh's war talks, and was elected to the Alabama Legislature several times.

When General Dale died in 1841, a stately Choctaw Chief stood at the site of the present Memorial and said " Big Sam, you Sleep Here, but your Spirit is a Brave and a Warrior In The Hunting Grounds Of The Sky".

British Naval Commander and Deputy Governor of Va. from 1588 to 1609. He was in the Netherlands with the English Army, originally under Robert Dudley. Earl of Leceister. In 1606, he was knighted by James 1st.

Under him began the first real expansion of the Colony with the establishment of the settlement of Henrico on and about what was later known as Ferror's Island. About 1614, he took the first step toward abolishing Communal system, by the introduction of private holdings, and it was during his administration that the first code of laws of Va. is given in Alexander Brown. Notes on other Dales sent by Mrs Ella Wolfley, Box 125 Burley Idaho.

William Albert Dale married Mary Gunter. Had a son named James Robert Dale B. 12 July 1839 in Pickens Co. Alabama, moved to Utah prior to 1867. Married 16, Nov. 1867 in Salt Lake city Utah. to Euphemie Hutchinson. They had a son born in Salt Lake city named James Albert Dale, born 14 Oct. 1870. He was the only son of James Robert Dale who was killed by Indians 1870 or 1871. Euphemie then married William Hyrum Sellers and they had 7 more children.

James Albert's name was legally changed to Sellers. He was the grandfather of Mrs Ella Wolfley (Could Albert Dale be a son of John or James from Va?) We believe they were brothers of Sam Dale the famed Indian fighter, who died a bachelor.

--- Dale ---

Sir Thomas Dale died in 1619.

British Naval Commander and Deputy Governor of Virginia.

From 1588 to 1609, he was in the Netherlands with the English Army originally under Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester.

In 1606 he was knighted by James the 1st. Under him began the first real expansion of the Colony with the establishment of the settlement of Henrico on and about what was later known as Farrior's Island. About 1614, he took the first step toward abolishing the communal system by the introduction of private holdings, and it was during his administration that the first Code of Laws of Virginia was effectually tested.

An account of Dale's career in Va. is given in Alexander Brown's The first republic in America 1898.

Dale's Code by W.f. Prince may be found in Volume 1 of the Annual Report of the American History Association for 1899- 1900 and Code in Pete Forces Historical Facts.
