

Haston in Oklahoma & Texas

Researched and Compiled by

Updated Information by Wayne Haston, PhD

At a time when many Haston family researchers were not careful about their research and documentation, Jane's work was outstanding—very impressive!

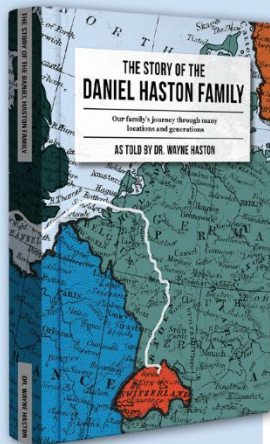

Due to advances in genealogical methodologies, there are some significant discoveries that have come to light since she published her work. I will point those out, and you can investigate them further.

Page 10 – Contrary to many of her peers, Jane wisely noted that “we have no proof” that the “Daniel Haston” mentioned in the “Roster of Soldiers from North Carolina” was our Daniel. In fact, subsequent documentation has revealed that it is highly unlikely that our Daniel Haston served as a Revolutionary War soldier. I have written two chapters in The Heritage, Life, and Legacy of Daniel Haston: Book 2 — The Life of Daniel Haston that thoroughly discuss this evidence.

Page 10 – We have learned through DNA that Daniel Haston's father was Henry Hiestand, a 1727 German (Deutsch)-speaking immigrant to America. The Hiestands were originally Anabaptists (Mennonites) from Switzerland who were forced out of their homeland because of their evangelical faith. Henry Hiestand's ancestors settled near or in the village of Ibersheim on the Rhine River in southwest Germany.

Page 10 – We now know that our Daniel was born and reared along the South Fork of the Shenandoah River in what is now Page County, VA. We have learned that Daniel Hiestand (Haston) married Christina Nave in Shenandoah County, VA in 1773. Whether or not she lived long enough to travel with him to the western wilderness of North Carolina (which became Tennessee) is uncertain and probably doubtful. Daniel may have had a second wife, whose name is uncertain but possibly “Susan” and known as “Suza.”

Page 11 – David Haston's wife, Polly, was the daughter of Phillip and Mary Roddy, not James Roddy. It is unlikely that they were ever members of anything other than the Union Cumberland Presbyterian Church, north of the Caney Fork River from where they lived. They are both buried in the Big Fork Cemetery, near their home. <https://bigforkhistoriccemetery.org/>

Daniel Haston
(1711--1820/30)

"A Roster of Soldiers from North Carolina in the American Revolution," containing a collection of miscellaneous records and published by the North Carolina Daughters of the American Revolution in 1932, shows on page 280 that Daniel Haston was granted 640 acres of land by warrant no. 2344, dated 29 September 1785, for 84 months service as a private of the Continental Line. He sold this warrant and therefore never took up the land. (We have no proof that this is our Daniel. National Archives in Washington cannot find any record of military service. I have a copy of warrant 2344 and it was signed by a Daniel Haston.)

On 26 September 1808, John Sevier, as Governor of Tennessee, issued Land Grant 535 (this was a cash purchase and not a land grant for war service) to "Daniel Hastings" conveying a tract of 150 acres in what was then White County, now Van Buren County. This tract was described by metes and bounds as lying... ..on the big spring branch of cane creek on the main fork of Cary fork Beginning at a white oak standing on the bank of the big spring branch on a conditional line of Joseph Hastings and Jacob Mitchell, beginning corner running...." (This is our Daniel, even though his name is misspelled. Some of the land near Sparta has been owned by Hastons since the early 1800s. I have a copy of this grant, but it is not signed by Daniel.)

In a biography of William Carroll Haston (David's youngest child), taken from a local biography of Old Settlers of the Cumberland Region of Tennessee, shows that William Carroll Haston was a grandson of Daniel Haston and recites that he, William, "is of Dutch descent, his grandfather, Daniel Haston, being scarcely able to speak English." The biography further states, "at an early day he (Daniel) came to Tennessee, locating in Van Buren County, near the spring now known as Hastons' Big Spring....In his family were thirteen children, all now deceased." (Yet, there are several Haston's in England and Scotland. Could Daniel have been speaking Gaelic instead of Dutch or German?)

Before coming to White County, Daniel Haston resided in Knox County, Tenn., as the court records there indicate that he served on the jury between the years 1795 and 1805. During this same period David Haston, his son, purchased land in Knox County.

In the 1820 census of White County listed under "heads of household" are Daniel, David, Joseph, and Isaac Haston.

Recorded in Land Deed books in White County are the records of the land purchases of David and Joseph Haston beginning around 1808.

Daniel Haston died between 1820 and 1830 as he is not listed in the 1830 census. Presumably he is buried in Big Fork Cemetery, located in the community near his farm.

Name of HIS WIFE and THE COUNTRY OF HIS BIRTH are unknown.

Daniel's home in Van Buren County, Tennessee stood on a hill overlooking the Haston Springs. Near his house was a mechanical apparatus for carrying buckets to and from the Springs below. An order for a cold bucket of water required only that the chosen individual start the conveyor and wait while his bucket descended to the Springs, filled itself, and returned to the hilltop. (per Dave Haston)

The inventor? Probably the little Haston/s/ in charge of the Daniel Haston household water supply!

Genealogy of David Haston
Son of Daniel Haston

David Haston, born 6 May 1777 in Virginia, died 1 April 1860, buried in Big Fork Cemetery, Van Buren County, Tennessee.

He married on 5 May 1800 in Knox County, Tennessee, to Margaret Roddy, daughter of James Roddy. Margaret was born on 8 September 1783, died on 24 February 1853, and is buried in Big Fork Cemetery. Margaret was born in North Carolina.

David Haston was very active in civic affairs and local government. He was a charter member of Van Buren County and a member of the Van Buren Court (usually chairman) until his death.

He bought 19 of the first lots in Spencer and sold all but 1 which he donated to the Church of Christ. Its present building is built on that lot. Until a church was built (Presbyterian?) church services were held in his home.

David paid someone to serve in the War of 1812 for him - legal at that time. (per Cousin Georgia Shapiro Smith)

He is the one who is quoted as saying Daniel could scarcely speak English.

Genealogy of James W. Huston, Sr.
Son of David Huston
Grandson of Daniel Huston

James W. Huston, Sr. was born on 24 August 1821 in Tennessee. He married on 21 October 1841 to Jane Shackley. He was a blacksmith. James died between 1852 and 1860 as a result of his horse slipping on ice and falling on him while he was returning home from work on the Spinner Cartthouse. He is buried at Big Fork Cemetery, Van Buren Co., Tennessee.

Jane Shackley was born on 28 June 1813 to Sam and ~~Prudence~~ ^{Oorus} Shackley. Her mother, Prudence (or ~~Prudence~~), was called Dorky and her maiden name was Woodruff (ketch for woodpile or woodenpile). ~~There were only three children in Sam and Prudence's family--all girls. Jane's sisters married brothers.~~ Not true

After James died, Jane took her children and returned to her parents' plantation. There they grew up, absorbing a lot of Negro superstitions which they never gave up.

Jane, her sons-David M. and Isham Phillip--and her daughter Evaline, and certain grandchildren moved to Bell County, Texas about 1875 to 1876. Son James, had already come to Texas. Every few years Jane went back to her old home, Tennessee. She died in 1895 in Tennessee and is buried in the Long Cemetery, Van Buren County beside her father.

Jane's granddaughter, Willie Huston Brown, had this to say about her, "My grandmother Huston lived with I was grown and married. I spent the night in my home before her last trip to Tennessee. I felt so honored to have my grandmother visit to my own home. She ate and knitted most of the time when she visited with our family. When I was a child she taught me to sew on quilt pieces. When I was about 7 years and then later she taught me to knit lace. I made enough lace to put around a petticoat (3 yards). I thought it was smart (ha)."

Ethel Huston Thayer (Mrs. John Thayer, 1707 E. 27th, Bryan, Texas), Robert L. Holdings (Rt. 1, Box 151-A, Reams, Texas), and James Robert Huston (Garretts) all have a picture of Jane. James Robert also has what I believe he described as a family group. James Robert also has about 30 letters written by the Texas James W's to his Tennessee James W's and he wonders if the Texas James W's have letters from the Tennessee James W's.

The following is a quotation from Mrs. Ira Haston Jackson's 24 May 1973 letter: I have found some of Aunt Theola's pictures in Mamma's old pictures. One is of she and Uncle Henry and two of their children--one named Lee and one Forest. Those were the names Mamma gave me to write on them. Another one is of five children..2 girls and three boys, Uncle Henry and Aunt Theola...no names. Two pictures of babies both girls...one named Gracie Jewel Colwell and May Colwell. The picture of Gracie Jewel has Tibbey Okla written on the back. So at the time the picture was taken they lived there. The picture of Uncle Henry and Aunt Theola and two boys was made at Hutto, Texas. Photographer was J. M. Milhollin. no date on either one..

Aunt Theola was a beautiful woman in these pictures. Uncle Henry has a handle bar mustach, nice looking man. At the time these pictures were taken the small boys wore dresses.

Genealogy of VI. James W. Haston, Jr.
 Son of James W. Haston, Sr. 3-19
 Grandson of David Haston 2-1
 Great-grandson of Daniel Haston 1-1

James W. Haston, Jr. was born in or near Spencer, Tennessee on 19 March 1852. He died on 14 May 1927 and is buried at Stanton, Texas. James, Jr. was 6-8 years old when his father died.

James, Jr. came to Little River Switch, Texas which is SE of Temple in 1869. He came with Matt York. In 1873, Nancy C. Durham, daughter of Matt York's sister, moved with parents from McMinnville, Tennessee to Texas. They stopped at Matt's house and there she and James, Jr. met for the first time. They were married in 1874. Nancy was born on 15 June 1857 and died on 2 November 1939.

Nancy Durham's father was a descendant of the founders of the Durham Tobacco Company. When Lillie Haston Graham was small she knew him as a quiet old man with long white whiskers. He had been an old time schoolmaster back in Tennessee and Kentucky.

Apparently the James W. Jr people and the Millie Isabel Haston York people are doubly related. From Mrs. Norman York comes this info: Harmon York b. 1810 and Nancy b. 1810 were the parents of William Matt York (and surely the mother of Nancy Durham!). William Matt York was born 1835 in Tennessee and died in 1878 in Bell Co., Texas. About 1864 he married Lucinda C. Reed who was b. 21 July 1827 in Arkansas. She died 21 July 1913 in Milan Co., Texas.

Lillie Haston Graham said that through the Yorks she was related to Sergeant York of WWI fame. Her great grandfather York was a captain in the Civil War.

VIII. Eveline Haston Genealogy

Daughter of James W. Haston

Granddaughter of David Haston

Great Grand daughter of Daniel Haston

Eveline Haston was b. in Spencer, Tennessee, 1850. The 1860 census is in-correct according to Maurine Mathis, in listing Eveline's age as 5. She was probably 5 months. The family story goes like this: Maurine's mother insists that her mother's birthday is wrong. She says her mother (Eveline) was born after her father's death. She said superstitious people brought children to her mother to cure of the thrash-a disease of the throat but her mother didn't believe in this. A person born after the death of the father was supposed to have special curitive powers. Eveline always said she was born the first year of the Civil War. When her brothers returned from war she was afraid of them and ran and hid under the bed. Mrs. Mathis says she heard this story many times.

About the Daniel Haston Family Association

A 501 (c)(7) IRS-Approved Association

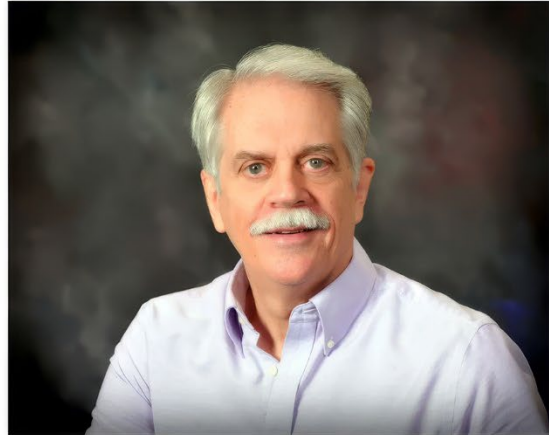

Rescuing from oblivion the history and stories of our early Hastons and related ancestors.

Daniel Haston was an American pioneer born in northern Virginia.

In about 1783, he moved his family to what is now East Tennessee and eventually settled in what became White County of Middle Tennessee.

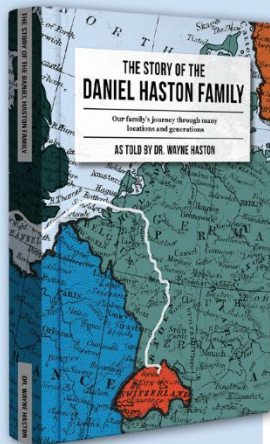

His father, Henry Hiestand, immigrated to America from the German Rhineland in 1727. However, the Hiestand family originated in Canton Zürich, Switzerland. They were Anabaptists (Mennonites) who had to flee their Swiss homeland because of persecution for their simple Biblical faith.

Daniel, a first-generation born-American, was a very simple man with 13 or so children and dozens of grandchildren who scattered from Tennessee throughout the Midwest, Southwest, Western states, and pretty much all over the United States.
